

Community Employment Services provided by Elwyn California

Finding dependable and enthusiastic employees to fill high turnover jobs is a real challenge for employers. Whether you are a 'Mom & Pop' shop or a multi-location corporation:

We Can Help

Elwyn California matches workers with disabilities to the needs of employers throughout Southern California.

We can help you identify and restructure duties to create a job for one of our workers so your staff can focus on their more complex duties.

Our Job Coaching staff will provide support & training to your new employee during the initial phase of employment and on-going follow-up support once your new employee meets performance goals.

Everyone Wins

- Pre-screened dependable, enthusiastic employees matched to your needs
- Less turnover & absenteeism in your business
 - Reduced advertising costs
 - Tax credits may be available to you
- We train your new employee(s) to meet agreed upon performance goals
 - Worker becomes a more independent member of community, less reliant on government support
- Build customer loyalty with your commitment to social responsibility & community
 - Create diversity in your workforce

Elwyn California Works...

Not Sure?

Here's what some participating employers & their customers have to say about hiring people with disabilities:

"Marty's impact on our law firm cannot be measured. Sitting through an office meeting without him would be like eating Italian food sans the garlic. He has a huge heart –during our last earthquake, Marty comforted a co-worker, held her hand, and said "Don't worry, I'm here". He works hard, takes his job seriously and enjoys the interaction with his co-workers. Friday, his day off, always feels a little off for us – like someone/something is missing. We value having Marty as part of our team and can't imagine this place without him"

Vogt & Resnick, LLP, Lawyers

"The Job Coaching Support from Elwyn California made it easy for us to hire someone with a disability. This individual has become an important part of our business and we have all benefited from this relationship." —Don Gibas, Gibas Golf

"Most friendly, efficient, and accommodating mail center I've ever been to in Orange County"

—Maria Gain, AIM Mail Center #64 Customer
